

Public airwaves are exactly that,
public.

The FCC needs to protect the interest of the public.

It is outrageous that Sinclair Broadcasting will be using public
airwaves to air a
one sided political diatribe against John Kerry mere days before the election.

Sinclair Broadcasting is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This is an abuse of the system and a slap in the face of the FCC.

I find this infinitely more offensive than the Janet Jackson
affair, and would urge the FCC to levy
heavy fines against Sinclair and seriously consider non-renewal of Sinclair's
broadcasting
license.

Thank you.
